Museum of Everything opening october

Saatchi Online - Blog On News, Views, Diaries, Photo-Journals

Opening in October 2009, The Museum of Everything will be London's first and only public space for the display of art which has been created by artists living outside the boundaries of mainstream society.

DotSpotIvan Pope: Museum of Everything

Beautiful and challenging, delicate and democratic, this is the secret art, which has inspired generations of artists - from Dubuffet to Basquiat. In this groundbreaking exhibition, the museum has invited leading artists, curators and cultural figures to explore the continuing connection between this genre and contemporary practice.
