PEPPERY ART GOODNESS AT MUSEUM OF EVERYTHING #3

Museum of Everything Exhibition #3 with Sir Peter Blake

The Museum of Everything,
Corner of Regents Park Rd and Sharples Hall St,
London NW1 8YL

13 October – 24 December 2010

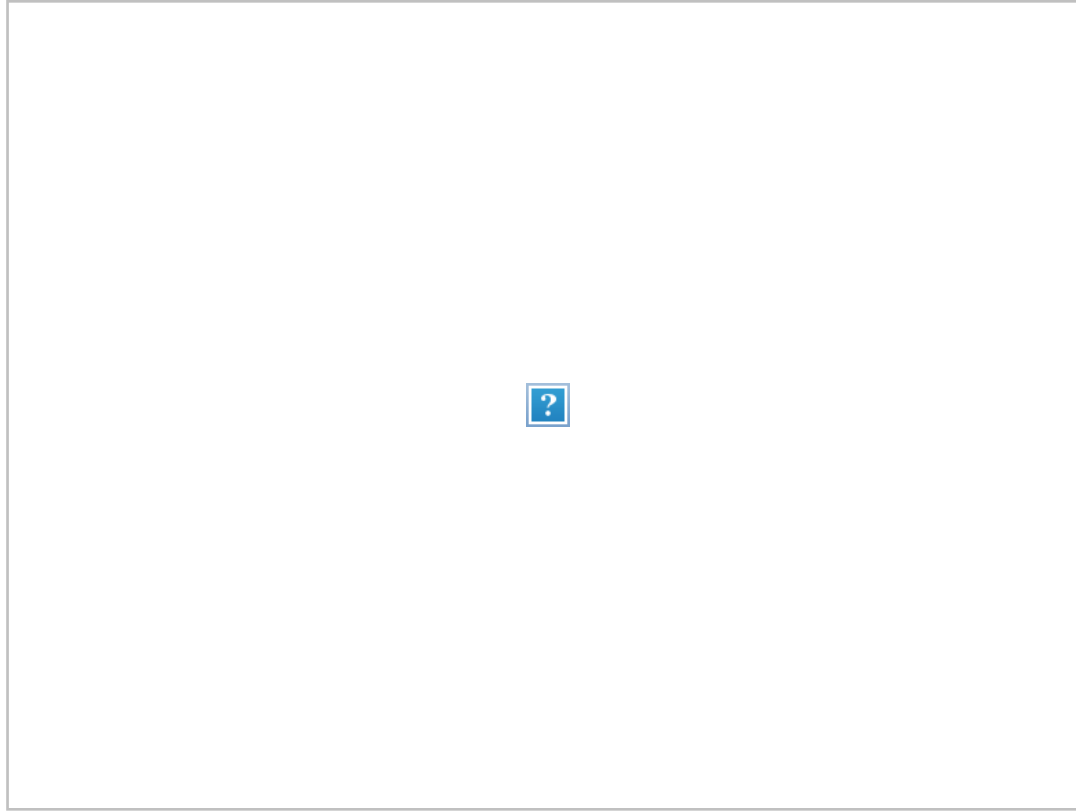

Free

Can we just say bloody HOORAY, because The Museum of Everything returns this week, a fantastic event for creators and artists on the fringes of modern society, working outside the mainstream art scene. It's playful, challenging, unique and inspiring, like stepping into a different world...

Their collaborator this year is Sir Peter Blake, MoE's aesthetic mentor and guide, who is also a collector par excellence. Inspired by Kurt Schwitters and Joseph Cornell, Blake has been an avid collector of ephemera and unusual art since he was a teenager, and will be putting his incredible collection on display at Museum of Everything #3.

The Museum of Everything will be just 5 mins from Frieze fair and runs a free shuttle from other parts of London, so if you're going down that way, try something different and stop by at MoE from Wednesday 13 October with talks and events aplenty filling the Frieze week with self-taught art and peppery goodness.
