SIR PETER BLAKE'S CABINET OF CURIOSITIES COMES TO THE MUSEUM OF EVERYTHING

Date: 13 Oct - 24 Dec 10
Event: Exhibition #3

Location: The Museum of Everything

Fans of contemporary art will be able to enjoy a new exhibition from Sir Peter Blake at The Museum of Everything when they stay at the Berkeley, a five star hotel in London.

The artist, who is most well-known for his celebrated Sgt Pepper's Lonely Heart Club Band album cover for the Beatles, is showing his wide collection of music memorabilia, Victorian taxidermy and vintage circus items.

According to Time Out, Exhibition #3 will run until December 24th and visitors will be able to delve into the strange world Sir Peter Blake has created with his collections of curios that he began collecting many years ago.

He said of the show: "In a way it's a conceptual art piece, we're just not quite sure what the concept is yet ... People will walk around and there will be things to look at and it probably won't be what anyone expects."

The Museum of Everything's fantastic new show has welcomed over 15,000 visitors since October and been voted Critics' Choice for six incredible weeks in Time Out.
