

Young and Poor London

- Home
- Cheap food & drink
- Cheap things to do
- Shopping

Go!

Exhibition #3

Posted 23 Dec 2010

Share

If you like weird and wonderful, this is the closest your going to get in London. The Museum of Everything will be presenting (in their words) the greatest weekend in the history of weekends, featuring all-day Punch & Judy, live muzac, hula-hoopers and circus carneys, plus three-headed farmyard animals serving croissants in their warm and cosy cafe.

Exhibition #3 has been rated 'critics choice' by timeout for 6 weeks. This year the Museum of Everything team up with Sir Peter Blake, avid art fans will know him as the 'Godfather' of British pop art as well as a massive art collector.

Exhibition #3 will be featuring his discoveries for the first time, turning its Primrose hill space into a canvas for the largest most ambitious art installation ever created by this non-stop septuagenarian.

See a full list of what's happening over Exhibition weekend

Free, Until Thurs 23rd Dec 2010, The Museum of Everything, Corner of Regents Park Rd and Sharples Hall St, NW1 8YL, Map, Website

Posted by Rajini Lolay

Categories: Cheap things to do

Contact us

Seen a good deal you want to tell everyone about? or even better, if you've got a great nose for deals in London then become a young and poor contributor.

Just talk to us

Young and Poor Fans

Copyright © 2010 youngandpoor.co.uk - All Rights Reserved.

- follow:
- Become my Facebook friend
- Tweet with me