

Critics' choice

The best exhibitions on this week

1 Frieze Art Fair Regent's Park

The reason that the art world is in town – for the best international galleries plus a host of associated events (see feature from p15). Oct 13 ▶ Oct 16

2 Gerhard Richter: Panorama Tate Modern

Painting meets history, abstraction and photography in this major survey of a great and highly influential living artist. ▶ Jan 8 2012

3 Grayson Perry British Museum

The artist cleverly inserts his own artworks into the Museum's displays in this personal homage to 'The Tomb of the Unknown Craftsman'. ▶ Feb 19 2012

4 Phyllida Barlow: Rig Hauser & Wirth

Phyllida Barlow's big and bold sculptural installations inhabit this former bank building turned gallery with a riot of colour and personality. ▶ Oct 22

5 The Museum of Everything Exhibition #4 Selfridges

The outsiders take over Selfridges in this new showcase of work by untrained, unintentional and socially marginalised artists. ▶ Oct 25