Herman Bossert's drawings in the Rotterdam Museum show

The Kunsthal Rotterdam presents The Museum of Everything, a major overview of international work from two hundred alternative artists from the 19th, 20th and 21st century.

The terms outsider art, naïve art, disabled art and primitive art are often used to describe the work of people who create outside the conventional art circuit. The Museum of Everything does not use these categories to define its artists. It speaks instead of private art-makers, non-academic creators and "the undiscovered, unintentional, untrained and unclassified artists of the modern era".

Johnson Weree is represented by nine of his wonderful portraits, Herman Bossert with six large drawings in ink and watercolor.
