The Creatives in Residence programme is a philanthropic initiative.

The Hospital Club supports a diverse group of exceptionally talented emerging creatives over the course of a year, actively contributing to their career progression and personal development. Together with an industry-representative judging panel, we have picked seven creatives at the beginning of their chosen careers, taking on a wide range of talent, from film, music, fashion, theatre & opera, architecture and visual arts.

The Museum of Everything returns to London

Wed
13

The Museum of Everything opened last night once again with the incredible Sir Peter Blake's collection; the godfather of British pop art and a collector par excellence, whose accumulations of self-taught art, found objects and anonymous artefacts inform and inspire his own oeuvre.

You can't miss this. Make your way now!
