

The Fashion Charts

Kicking off our BIGGEST EVER fashion issue is our super-sized fashion charts. From must-have ESSENTIALS to the downright enchanting, we've cherry-picked the HOTTEST, chicest buys of the SEASON. Happy shopping!

1

Clements Ribeiro

Brit-based label Clements Ribeiro has created this quirky frock as part of a special collection for the Museum of Everything exhibition at Selfridges, London. An art and fashion installation, it's on until 25 October. £410, www.selfridges.com.

2

Dolce & Gabbana

New to Dolce & Gabbana's Miss Sicily bag family this season are these incredible petite sequin- and star-embellished styles. Ideal for working the mini bag trend... Finally, an evening bag that holds more than a lipstick! Hurrah! From about £630, www.dolcegabbana.com.

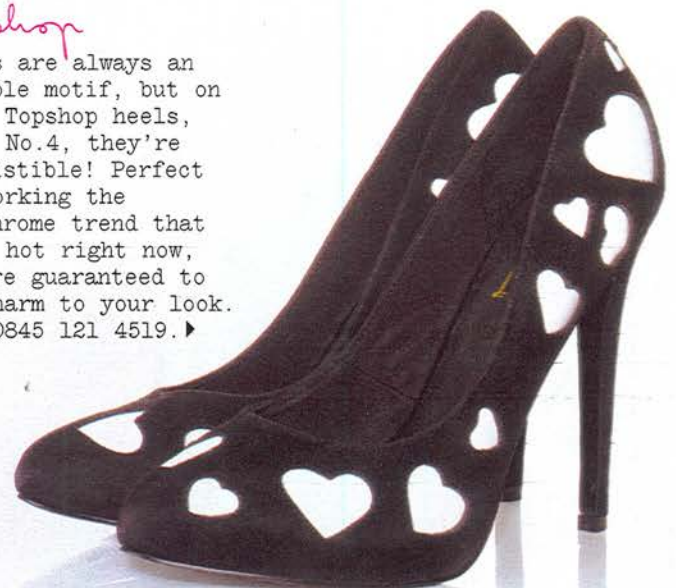

A/W'S
HIT
BAG!

4

Topshop

Hearts are always an adorable motif, but on these Topshop heels, in at No.4, they're irresistible! Perfect for working the monochrome trend that is so hot right now, they're guaranteed to add charm to your look. £60, 0845 121 4519. ▶

3

Christopher Kane

Inspired by the pencil cases we all adored at school, LFW favourite Christopher Kane has created liquid-filled clutch purses, a brilliantly modern addition to any cocktail dress. £385, www.net-a-porter.com.

