

George Thaxton Miller by Peter Saville

The commercial art sensibility of GT Miller's work appealed to me immediately. With the directness and immediacy of political placards they show care and craft in their execution, and display a functional clarity unusual in this genre. I identify and empathise with the feelings he expresses. They are hymns for the self-employed.

Peter Saville
b 1955 (Britain)
graphic designer,
co-founder Factory Records