

The Museum of Everything presents

Il Palazzo di Everything

Collateral Event of the 55th International Art Exhibition of the Venice Biennale

55. Esposizione Internazionale d'Arte
Eventi collaterali

Stop! You! Very good-looking and arty person! Don't walk past! This is The Poster of Everything - a large piece of paper advertising that critically-acclaimed and world-famous wandering space, The Museum of Everything. The Museum of Everything has arrived in Venice with Il Palazzo di Everything: a glorious garden of freeform creativity at the historic Serra dei Giardini, just a tip-toe away from the main pavilions. Inside our creative oasis, you can discover over fifty rare works by the greatest Italian self-taught artist of all time, Carlo Zinelli - born just 100km from Venice itself - plus The Salon of Everything, a live and radically relaxed round-table conversation with the superstars of contemporary art. The Museum of Everything urges you to join the revolution and celebrate those who make art for themselves and not for the museums, the markets or the masses. Or just pop over, hang out, sunbathe on the grass and drunkenly seduce international lovers at The Café of Everything - the only fully functioning bar and eaterie anywhere near the Giardini. Vive la différence, The Museum of Everything.
